

Sydney's
cafés rated & reviewed

thecoffeeguide... SYDNEY

The guide to find... the perfect grind

2007
EDITION

Slices Deli Café

Shop 15 Gladesville Shopping Village, Gladesville
mon/sat 8am to 5pm | sun 9am to 2pm

Located in the little Gladesville Shopping Village, Slices offers you a gourmet dining experience where you can pick the best of different cultures and have it all laid out in front of you for your tasting pleasure.

Speckled amongst the produce displays on the walls and on what seems to be every bit of shelf space available are the café's many awards and certificates of merit, from Best Café & Best Delicatessen, Northern Districts 2005 to Food Editors for Café Culture and more.

Slices is a café that knows what it does well and consistently delivers quality to its clientele through daily gourmet food tasting for passers-by, to the creation and maintenance of a VIP loyalty database, boasting a membership of over 1400 customers who find reward in the quality of the café's delicatessen catering, as well as VIP events throughout the year, such as jazz and cooking nights.

To add to its prestigious awards, Slices owner Kelly Centellas can boast a 2005 Employer of the Year award which speaks volumes about the staff and service quality that she cultivates. A welcoming face either behind the counter or throughout the floor does not deceive, it in fact complements the family-oriented atmosphere created in the café where, as Slices staff would say, 'Kids are VIPs too', where scattered high chairs, colouring-in books and free babycinos are the norm.

After a leisurely breakfast by the café's enormous ceiling-to-floor windows, my espresso was served a little short but at the right temperature. A bright acidity contrasted the earthy-based aroma. The dense body coated my mouth perfectly. With so much to tantalise the senses throughout the café, a visit to this unique gourmet 'Mecca' is a must.

Coffee ... Toby's Estate

